

Wittgenstein Lectures 2026

“Connected Intelligence: How our social ties generate knowledge”

15–19 June 2026 | Professor Kevin Zollman from Carnegie Mellon University Pittsburgh

- Monday, 15 June: Understanding complex social dynamics with simple models: The example of polarization
16–18 s.t. | H 25 (RW I)
Reception
- Tuesday, 16 June: Individual rationality and social pathology: the case of pluralistic ignorance
Lecture: 10–12 c.t. | H 27 (GW II)
Colloquium: 12–13 c.t. | H 27 (GW II)
- Wednesday, 17 June: Scientific Progress Through Bias
Lecture: 10–12 c.t. | H 27 (GW II)
Colloquium: 12–13 c.t. | H 27 (GW II)
- Thursday, 18 June: The transmission of information and misinformation
Lecture: 10–12 c.t. | H 26 (GW I)
Colloquium: 12–13 c.t. | H 26 (GW I)
- Friday, 19 June: Reflection on the differences between individual and social epistemology
Lecture: 10–12 s.t. | H 25 (RW I)
Exam: 15.15–16.15 | H 25 (RW I)