

Research Associate / Lecturer (f/m/d) - Epistemology

The professorship of Epistemology at the University of Bayreuth invites applications for a 12 months teaching & research position.

The position is funded from April 2021 to March 2022 and needs to cover teaching & research seminars in the following area:

- Epistemology

Requirements:

Ph.D. in philosophy; AOS or AOC in epistemology or philosophy of mind. Solid teaching experience. No prior knowledge of German is required. Teaching and administrative duties can be carried out in English.

Expectations:

Teaching: 7SWS, i.e. 7 hours a week.

The suggested division of courses is as follows: 3 courses in the Summer Semester 2021 (3 topic courses in epistemology) and 4 courses in the Winter Semester 2021 (introduction to philosophy seminar, epistemology lecture and 2 seminars on a topic of his/her choice). The seminars are part of the Philosophy and Economics BA and MA programs. For more information, please access: <https://www.phil.uni-bayreuth.de/en/index.html>

Research:

The applicant is not tied to specific topics, although complementarity with research being done at the Professorship for Epistemology is a plus.

Remuneration:

The successful applicant will be enrolled under TV-L.

The University of Bayreuth is an equal opportunities employer and especially encourages applications from women. Persons with disabilities will be given priority if equally qualified.

Please submit the usual application documents (CV, certificates, recommendation letters, one writing sample, and a list of courses proposal) to the application portal of Bayreuth University by Jan 10th, 2021.

Codeword: Epistemology (www.stellenangebote.uni-bayreuth.de)

Inquiries are welcome by e-mail: cristina.borgoni@uni-bayreuth.de.